

Senior Executives from China Asset Management will interview suitable candidates from 10/26 - 10/28 at NYC

China Asset Management Co., Ltd. is one of the earliest licensed asset management institutions in China, with its steady growth and compliant operation, ChinaAMC has become one of the largest and best performing asset management companies in China. As of Sept.30th 2007, ChinaAMC's assets under management exceeded US$28 billion, and it manages 3 closed-end funds and 14 open-end funds. ChinaAMC just successfully launched Global Select Stock Fund, which raised US$ 4 billion. This fund is the first truly global select stock fund in China, which invests in global markets, such as US, Europe, Japan, Hong Kong and the emerging markets. To accommodate its growth and meet its needs for top niche talents, ChinaAMC is recruiting for the following positions:

1. Portfolio Manager for ChinaAMC Global Select Stock Fund

Job Description:

Responsible for the performance of the fund, conduct research on global securities markets, conceive and design the company's fund products featuring global markets, develop and execute the company's investment plan in the global markets.

Requirements:

1. Master's degree or above in finance, science or other related field. CFA is preferred
2. 3+ yrs of experience working on securities investment at reputed international investment firms with good performance track record
3. Possess strong analytical skills and deep understanding of the markets. Good command of Chinese is a must
4. Personal qualities should include integrity, good communication skills, a team-oriented attitude, ability to work under pressure and strong desire to succeed
5. Location: Beijing

2. Sector Analyst

Job Description:

Research on industries and listed companies of the target markets, decision making support for fund management

Requirements:

1. Master's degree or above in Finance, science or other related field. CFA is preferred.
2. 3+ yrs of experience working on securities research at reputed international investment firms
3. Possess strong analytical skills and deep understanding of the markets. Good command of Chinese is a must.
4. Personal qualities should include integrity, good communication skills, a team-oriented attitude, ability to work under pressure and strong desire to succeed.

Location: Beijing

3. Quantitative Analyst

Job Description:

Support research and operation on quantitative equity strategies for global market.

Requirements:

1. Master's degree or above in science or other related field.
2. Knowledge of portfolio optimization, risk model and accounting is a plus.
3. Must have strong programming skills
4. Experience with Factset, Bloomberg and Reuters is preferred.
5. Personal qualities should include integrity, good communication skills, a team-oriented attitude, ability to work under pressure and strong desire to succeed.

Location: Beijing

For further information contact Zhou Bing at +86-10-88066612, visit our website at www.CHINAAMC.com or preferably submit your detailed CV to career@chinaamc.com.